COUNTRY	East Germany REPORT
OPIC	Soviet Air Force in Werder
/ALUATION	PLACE OBTAINED	- O.F.V.1
TE OF CONT		25X1
TE OBTAINE	ATE PREPARED 1 December 1954
FERENCES_		25X1
GES	3 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)
MARKS	This is UNEVALUATED Information	25X1
	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	the state of the s	_25X1
		25X1
	•	_0,
1.
1.	Children of the Colonel Belouzev (fnu).
1.	Chillieutenant Colonel Belouzov (fnu).	25X1
1.	Lieutenant Colonel Belouzev (fnu).
1.	Some of the Soviet officers who previously were assigned to administrative sections were replaced by Soviet civilians. Two
1.	Some of the Soviet officers who previously were assigned to administrative sections were replaced by Soviet civilians. Two officers of the Basa in Werder were effected by this order, namely the deputy chief Senior Lieutenant Tryaskin (fnu) who was replaced
1.	Some of the Soviet officers who previously were assigned to administrative sections were replaced by Soviet civilians. Two officers of the Basa in Werder were effected by this order, namely	25X1
	Some of the Soviet officers who previously were assigned to administrative sections were replaced by Soviet civilians. Two officers of the Basa in Werder were effected by this order, namely the deputy chief Senior Lieutenant Tryaskin (fnu) who was replaced by Zerweyev (fnu) and the chief bookkeeper Captain Korobel (fnu)	25X1
	Some of the Soviet officers who previously were assigned to administrative sections were replaced by Soviet civilians. Two officers of the Basa in Werder were effected by this order, namely the deputy chief Senior Lieutenant Tryaskin (fnu) who was replaced by Zergeyev (fnu) and the chief bookkeeper Captain Korobel (fnu) who was replaced by a Soviet woman with the first name of Lydia. 1 The following information was obtained in regard to the commissaries: On 14 October 1954, a new commissary (19) with officer Belyayev (fnu)	25X1
	Some of the Soviet officers who previously were assigned to administrative sections were replaced by Soviet civilians. Two officers of the Basa in Werder were effected by this order, namely the deputy chief Senior Lieutenant Tryaskin (fnu) who was replaced by Zergeyev (fnu) and the chief bookkeeper Captain Korobel (fnu) who was replaced by a Soviet woman with the first name of Lydia. 1 The following information was obtained in regard to the commissaries: On 14 October 1954, a new commissary (19) with officer Belyayev (fnu) as chief was established in Merseburg. The new commissary mainly made its purchases in Leipzig. Merseburg military post had previously	25X1
	Some of the Soviet officers who previously were assigned to administrative sections were replaced by Soviet civilians. Two officers of the Basa in Werder were effected by this order, namely the deputy chief Senior Lieutenant Tryaskin (fnu) who was replaced by Zergeyev (fnu) and the chief bookkeeper Captain Morobel (fnu) who was replaced by a Soviet woman with the first name of Lydia. 1 The following information was obtained in regard to the commissaries: On 14 October 1954, a new commissary (19) with officer Belyayev (fnu) as chief was established in Merseburg. The new commissary mainly made its purchases in Leipzig. Merseburg military post had previously been supplied by Commissary (14) Komar which now was only in charge of Koethen and Wittenberg military posts. Major Molchanov (fnu)	25X1
	Some of the Soviet officers who previously were assigned to administrative sections were replaced by Soviet civilians. Two officers of the Basa in Werder were effected by this order, namely the deputy chief Senior Lieutenant Tryaskin (fnu) who was replaced by Zergeyev (fnu) and the chief bookkeeper Captain Korobel (fnu) who was replaced by a Soviet woman with the first name of Lydia. 1 The following information was obtained in regard to the commissaries: On 14 October 1954, a new commissary (19) with officer Belyayev (fnu) as chief was established in Merseburg. The new commissary mainly made its purchases in Leipzig. Merseburg military post had previously been supplied by Commissary (14) Komar which now was only in charge of Koethen and Wittenberg military posts. Major Molchanov (fnu) was the chief of the store in Neuruppin which was assigned to Commissary (1) Voichenkov. Brandenburg-Industriehafen was supplied	25X1
	Some of the Soviet officers who previously were assigned to administrative sections were replaced by Soviet civilians. Two officers of the Basa in Werder were effected by this order, namely the deputy chief Senior Lieutenant Tryaskin (fnu) who was replaced by Zergeyev (fnu) and the chief bookkeeper Captain Korobel (fnu) who was replaced by a Soviet woman with the first name of Lydia. I The following information was obtained in regard to the commissaries: On 14 October 1954, a new commissary (19) with officer Belyayev (fnu) as chief was established in Merseburg. The new commissary mainly made its purchases in Leipzig. Merseburg military post had previously been supplied by Commissary (14) Komar which now was only in charge of Koethen and Wittenberg military posts. Major Molchanov (fnu) was the chief of the store in Neuruppin which was assigned to Commissary (1) Voichenkov. Brandenburg-Industriehafen was supplied by Commissary (9) Mashkin and Brandenburg-Briest by Commissary (11)	25X1
	Some of the Soviet officers who previously were assigned to administrative sections were replaced by Soviet civilians. Two officers of the Basa in Werder were effected by this order, namely the deputy chief Senior Lieutenant Tryaskin (fnu) who was replaced by Zergeyev (fnu) and the chief bookkeeper Captain Korobel (fnu) who was replaced by a Soviet woman with the first name of Lydia. I The following information was obtained in regard to the commissaries: On 14 October 1954, a new commissary (19) with officer Belyayev (fnu) as chief was established in Merseburg. The new commissary mainly made its purchases in Leipzig. Merseburg military post had previously been supplied by Commissary (14) Komar which now was only in charge of Koethen and Wittenberg military posts. Major Molchanov (fnu) was the chief of the store in Neuruppin which was assigned to Commissary (1) Voichenkov. Brandenburg-Industriehafen was supplied by Commissary (9) Mashkin and Brandenburg-Briest by Commissary (11) Eromenko. The former commissary, on 23 October, purchased, for the Brandenburg-Industriehafen military post, 300 collar patches for	25X1 25X1
	Some of the Soviet officers who previously were assigned to administrative sections were replaced by Soviet civilians. Two officers of the Basa in Werder were effected by this order, namely the deputy chief Senior Lieutenant Tryaskin (fnu) who was replaced by Zergeyev (fnu) and the chief bookkeeper Captain Korobel (fnu) who was replaced by a Soviet woman with the first name of Lydia. I The following information was obtained in regard to the commissaries: On 14 October 1954, a new commissary (19) with officer Belyayev (fnu) as chief was established in Merseburg. The new commissary mainly made its purchases in Leipzig. Merseburg military post had previously been supplied by Commissary (14) Komar which now was only in charge of Koethen and Wittenberg military posts. Major Molchanov (fnu) was the chief of the store in Neuruppin which was assigned to Commissary (1) Voichenkov. Brandenburg-Industriehafen was supplied by Commissary (9) Mashkin and Brandenburg-Briest by Commissary (11) Eromenko. The former commissary, on 23 October, purchased, for the Brandenburg-Industriehafen military post. 300 collar patches for air force personnel.	25X1
	Some of the Soviet officers who previously were assigned to administrative sections were replaced by Soviet civilians. Two officers of the Basa in Werder were effected by this order, namely the deputy chief Senior Lieutenant Tryaskin (fnu) who was replaced by Zergeyev (fnu) and the chief bookkeeper Captain Korobel (fnu) who was replaced by a Soviet woman with the first name of Lydia. 1 The following information was obtained in regard to the commissaries: On 14 October 1954, a new commissary (19) with officer Belyayev (fnu) as chief was established in Merseburg. The new commissary mainly made its purchases in Leipzig. Merseburg military post had previously been supplied by Commissary (14) Komar which now was only in charge of Koethen and Wittenberg military posts. Major Molchanov (fnu) was the chief of the store in Neuruppin which was assigned to Commissary (1) Voichenkov. Brandenburg-Industriehafen was surplied by Commissary (9) Mashkin and Brandenburg-Briest by Commissary (11) Eromenko. The former commissary, on 23 October, purchased, for the Brandenburg-Industriehafen military post, 300 collar patches for air force personnel.	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
2.	Some of the Soviet officers who previously were assigned to administrative sections were replaced by Soviet civilians. Two officers of the Basa in Werder were effected by this order, namely the deputy chief Senior Lieutenant Tryaskin (fnu) who was replaced by Zergeyev (fnu) and the chief bookkeeper Captain Korobel (fnu) who was replaced by a Soviet woman with the first name of Lydia. I The following information was obtained in regard to the commissaries: On 14 October 1954, a new commissary (19) with officer Belyayev (fnu) as chief was established in Merseburg. The new commissary mainly made its purchases in Leipzig. Merseburg military post had previously been supplied by Commissary (14) Komar which now was only in charge of Koethen and Wittenberg military posts. Major Molchanov (fnu) was the chief of the store in Neuruppin which was assigned to Commissary (1) Voichenkov. Brandenburg-Industriehafen was supplied by Commissary (9) Mashkin and Brandenburg-Briest by Commissary (11) Eromenko. The former commissary, on 23 October, purchased, for the Brandenburg-Industriehafen military post. 300 collar patches for air force personnel. 300 men had newly arrived. On 22 October, 100 pairs of infantry epaulets for former air force personnel were purchased by the	25X1 25X1 25X1
	Some of the Soviet officers who previously were assigned to administrative sections were replaced by Soviet civilians. Two officers of the Basa in Werder were effected by this order, namely the deputy chief Senior Lieutenant Tryaskin (fnu) who was replaced by Zergeyev (fnu) and the chief bookkeeper Captain Korobel (fnu) who was replaced by a Soviet woman with the first name of Lydia. I The following information was obtained in regard to the commissaries: On 14 October 1954, a new commissary (19) with officer Belyayev (fnu) as chief was established in Merseburg. The new commissary mainly made its purchases in Leipzig. Merseburg military post had previously been supplied by Commissary (14) Komar which now was only in charge of Koethen and Wittenberg military posts. Major Molchanov (fnu) was the chief of the store in Neuruppin which was assigned to Commissary (1) Voichenkov. Brandenburg-Industriehafen was supplied by Commissary (9) Mashkin and Brandenburg-Briest by Commissary (11) Eromenko. The former commissary, on 23 October, purchased, for the Brandenburg-Industriehafen military post. 300 collar patches for air force personnel. 300 men had newly arrived. On 22 October, 100 pairs of infantry epaulets for former air force personnel were purchased by the	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1

	- 2 -		25X1
	- 2 -		25X1
	·		25X1
t. The officers	and civilians are men	tioned for the	25 X
•			25X
t. Officer Bely	ayev is reported for t	he first time.	201
nov was once rep	orted from Neuruppin i	n connection	25 V
2300411481			25X ² 25X1
	t. Officer Bely	t. Officer Belyayev is reported for t nov was cnce reported from Neuruppin i	t. Officer Belyayev is reported for the first time. nov was cnce reported from Neuruppin in connection

SECRET/ - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY

